

DEPARTMENT OF FLORIDA
MARINE CORPS LEAGUE
COMMANDANT'S DIRECTIVE

Directive No. 14-3

Prescribed Uniform for all Past Department Commandants
Promulgated October 26th, 2014

At all Department Conferences and Conventions, Business Meetings, it is directed that all Past Department Commandants wear the Uniform of the Day as specified below.

The Uniform of the Day shall be the Undress Uniform of the Marine Corps League.

The undress uniform of the MCL, as stated in the National By Laws Enclosure

Three, Section-UNIFORMS MALE, UNDRRESS, is as follows:

Standard MCL cover, white shirt (Pilot), (with MCL or DOD ribbons), MODD Tag, blue dress trousers with NCO red stripe, Marine Corps khaki web belt with brass buckle, with black socks and black shined plain toe shoes; or optional black trousers with black belt, with black socks, and black shined plain toe shoes.

The sole exception will be the Jr. Past Commandant who will be subject to the Department Commandant's Uniform of the Day. It is also requested that all Past Department Commandants sit in the front row (Left side facing the Podium) during the Business Meeting.

This directive will be in effect forthwith.

By Order of

William G. Cona

Department of Florida

Commandant

MARINE

CORPS LEAGUE